

History of the Holidays: History of Veterans Day

- History Channel

- Remembrance Day around the world
- Remembrance for people who served
- Started in Railroad Car during World War I
- Signed a truce/Armistice
- 11th hour, 11th day, 11th month 1918
- Poppies for remembrance
- November 11th legal holiday
- President Eisenhower changed it to Veteran's Day

years later -

Woodrow Wilson declared moment of silence which started what we now know as Veteran's Day

November 11th we honor all who served in war and their nation in peace.